What is the expected living situation for your next minister?

- Continuing education provided annually- $1,900 annually (unused annual amount will be available to be put towards a sabbatical)

Describe peer and professional supports available for ministers in your association/conference:

There is a local, small, loosely structured group that gathers once a month. Also, Peace UCC has a Pastor's Support Committee selected by either the pastor or approved by the council president. As the Wisconsin Conference encourages all clergy to participate in a monthly Community of Practice, our congregation supports the cost of participating.

If applicable, describe how your church will adopt part-time adjustments in the pastoral schedule to support a minister's bi-vocational employment: N/A

1d. WHO IS GOD CALLING TO MINISTER WITH US?

Describe the ministry goals you envision your next minister co-collaborating with the congregation to achieve:

- Create a more vital worship with fresh ideas
- Increased mission engagement with our community

- Increased openness including exploration into becoming an Open and Affirming congregation
- Build and maintain membership relationships to aid in retention of members

Describe how your vision of the minister you are now seeking will assist the congregation in making an impact beyond its walls:

We would like to see our new settled pastor working with community members to establish a collaborative benefit between Peace UCC and the residents of Shawano.

Specify language requirements or culturally-specific capacities preferred in a next ministerial leader, and why those matter to the congregation's sense of calling:

Peace UCC would like to be known in the Shawano community as a welcoming church, where all are welcome to worship without judgement.

While we do not have any language requirements, second and beyond language is a plus. We feel cultural acceptance of anyone who walks through the doors critical. Though we are a primarily white congregation, we are accepting of all different races/ethnicities. Our goal is to be a place where all feel comfortable and welcome.

Based on what you have learned about who your church is, who your church's neighbor is, and who God is calling the church to become, describe four areas of excellence from The Marks of Faithful & Effective Authorized Ministry that your next minister will display to further equip the congregation's ministry in these areas:

Engaging Sacred Stories and Traditions - making worship, church related gatherings and activities, sacraments engaging and understandable for all ages; identifying music and sing-alongs that are motivational to all.

Caring for all Creation - including self-care and exemplifying that for our congregation, in a world where self-care can be seen as weakness.

Working Together for Justice and Mercy - coming together as one, despite differences; working on becoming ONA and having the entire congregation on board.

Strengthening Inter-and Intra- Personal Assets - working on ourselves and our relationships with others through God as our example and leader, as well as demonstrating excellent communication and listening skills.

2. WHO IS GOD CALLING US TO BECOME?

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.” (Matthew 22:37 NRSV)

Who is God calling you to become as a congregation?

We feel we are called to be a safe and inviting community for all without judgement, actively seeking other members for our community. Led with strong support and assurance by our minister and council, we want to move forward as a unified, assured group of diverse people joined together by faith and common purpose.

Describe how God is calling you to reach out to address the emerging challenges and opportunities of your community and congregation:

Giving back and volunteering outside our walls is an important component to our faith. Within the past few years, Peace UCC has initiated ways of reaching out to the community more by participating in community dinners at Shawano’s local homeless shelter Sam 25, local Santa Parade and taking a group caroling to local nursing homes. The consistent number of homeless along with those living in poverty has always been prevalent and we try to help tackle this issue by consistently working to improve the situations of those in need.

Additionally, 2 years ago Peace UCC participated in the Readiness360 survey. While this was new to us and expectations were varied amongst council members and clergy, ultimately the response was tremendous with a survey return of 24%. We held follow up feedback sessions that were well attended and gave us a solid direction for the future.

3. WHO ARE WE NOW?

3a. CONGREGATIONAL REFLECTIONS

Describe your congregation's life of faith:

As a Congregation our purpose is to worship God, to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, to provide education and support for each person's growth as a Christian. We celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism and Holy Communion, share Christian fellowship and unity within this Church and the Church universal, and strive to serve humankind in loving response to God with righteousness, justice and peace for all.

In worship, God is most often described as a loving God. A God whose words can sometimes be stern and demanding, but in love and with the goal of helping us, His children, be the best we can be. The Holy Spirit in our midst is us! We are God's spirit on earth. When we listen to and share His word and love with others, we are in truth the Holy Spirit.

Our Membership Covenant states:

- Seek and respond to the Word and Will of God
- Walk together in the ways of the Lord made known and to be made known to us as witnesses to the gospel of Jesus Christ in all the world
- Depend, as did our fathers and mothers, on the coming kingdom of God and look with faith toward the triumph of righteousness and eternal life
- Abide by this Church's policies and bylaws

Each Member is expected to:

- Attend and participate regularly in worship services and celebrations of Holy Communion.
- Grow in Faith and discipleship
- Live a Christian life.
- Participate actively in baptism, Christian education and confirmation of his or her children.

- Share in the ministry and mission of this Church.
- Contribute his or her time, abilities and money to support this church and its benevolences.
- Seek diligently the spiritual welfare of the member and the community.

Describe several strengths or positive qualities of your congregation:

Perseverance and faith! Despite any crisis or challenge over the years this congregation has relied on each other, their faith in God, and hard work to overcome and remain together coming out an even more united community. We are open and welcoming without judgement supporting each member. Our congregation steps up to serve not only within the walls of our church but also beyond them within our community.

Describe what worship is like when your congregation gathers:

Prior to the global pandemic, worship at Peace UCC typically takes place in our Sanctuary on Sunday mornings, and in our Great Room on Thursday afternoons for a more informal setting. Music is an important component and is celebrated through hymns and anthems through the use of piano, organ, guitar and drums. On most Sundays during the school year, you will also find our Adult Celebration Choir participating in the sharing of music as well. Passing of the Peace is an important part of worship at Peace UCC! This is a great time (lasting 5-10 minutes) of greeting, laughing and loving members new and old! This is also a great opportunity to include visitors and is not just wishing each other peace but a time to connect and usually involves lots of hugs!

Baptism is a celebration at Peace UCC! It includes parents, children, sponsors and vows in the front of our sanctuary with the baptismal font as our pastor anoints the head with water.

We would describe “good preaching” as being led/guided, challenged and taught through sharing God’s word in a positive manner. While this may include storytelling, jokes and congregation participation, leaving with a purpose for the week is key.

Describe the educational program/faith formation vision of your church:

In our Sunday School program, our teachers and aids use the Spark and Reform curriculums which have gotten good feedback from the families and congregation. As our young people go through confirmation they help with liturgy as well as Sunday School and in the audiovisual booth during Sunday service. As part of their confirmation program the confirmands serve outside the church participating in community service projects.

Adult studies have included a book study of the Advent Book, While We Wait-Living the Questions of Advent by Mary Lou Redding (Upper Room book). They have also explored Acts 1-6 from Listen Up! Bible Study of the Book of Acts! prepared by the UCC Still Speaking Writers Group. The group has also done several classes using the Lectionary for the week. Those who attend really enjoy the closeness of the group and look forward to the classes. Everyone is always welcome and no one feels intimidated as there is a wide range of biblical knowledge and there is a very open sharing of thoughts and feelings leading to a great learning experience.

Describe how your congregation is organized for ministry and mission:

Our Church is organized through various committees run by volunteers. Some of the committees/organized activities in our church include:

Activities include: Urban Immersion, Moon Beach, Special Offerings, Donation Drives, AA, Art Classes, Community Dinners, Church Dinners, Support of Local Food Pantry, Cookie Walk
Committees include: Missions, Christian Education, Finance, Facilities, Nominating, Personnel, Alter, Audit Membership Services, Pastoral Support, Memorial, Worship and Stewardship.

When it comes to decision-making, how many hours are spent in meetings per month?

Our 6-member elected church council meets once a month for approximately 2-3 hours. Other committees meet as needed throughout the year and report to the council.

Think of a time when action had to be taken quickly, for example when a crisis or disaster occurred. How was that accomplished?

In 2020 our church/congregation was hit with 2 crises; the global pandemic 2 months after our new pastor was installed and then 10 months later our new pastor was diagnosed with an illness so severe that it forced him to resign. Regarding the pandemic, we moved very quickly to provide online worship via Facebook as well as YouTube. Council meetings continued and increased in number via zoom to ensure the health of our church and congregation remained at the forefront. Our congregation offered content for those online services in the way of prerecorded readings, special music, and announcements. Working with a specialist, our council quickly put into place thorough cleaning protocols for our church. Outside worship to assure social distancing was also a part of the summer of 2020 to ensure we continued to serve our congregation.

Regarding the loss of our new Pastor, we again pulled together as a congregation to ensure services continued until we had an interim in place. Though we feel this loss, our congregation will always come together in times of crisis to keep looking forward.

Can you provide the next minister with a copy of an organization structure, bylaws and/or annual report to further explain the patterns of the church's activity and governance?

Yes. Our Annual Report will be made available upon request.

We lean more toward manual labor than the state as a whole.

Describe the mix of ethnic heritages in your congregation, and the overall racial make-up. Most UCC congregations tend to describe themselves as “diverse.” Yet, the vast majority of UCC congregations are mono-cultural. What does diversity mean in your context?

Our congregation is primarily Caucasian, however the surrounding Shawano area demographics are as follows:

85% White

12% Native American

3% Hispanic/Latino

African American and Asian American representations are in the <1%

Has your congregation recently had a conversation about welcoming diversity, or do you plan to hold one on the near future (perhaps using, for example, the Welcoming Diversity Inventory)? Please note the date. Comment after the exercise:

A small team of church members met May 14, 2019 with a conference representative to learn about becoming an open and affirming church body. We are also including but not limited to having reached out to the Native American community through a cultural tour of nearby Menominee County Reservation.

3f. HISTORICAL INFORMATION

Name one to three significant happenings in the history of your church that have shaped the identity of your congregation. Add the most important event in the life of your church in the past 10 years.

Three significant events have happened in the life of Peace UCC in the past 10 years. Describe a specific change your church has managed in the recent past:

As a church we came together to honor our Pastor's recent retirement while continuing to be proactive in finding an interim pastor to fit our congregations needs. During this time, we moved forward discussing our recent Readiness 360 survey outlining our future goals. We formed a search and call committee to begin the process of looking for our future pastor.

Every church has conflict, some minor, some larger. "Where two or three are gathered, there will be disagreement...." Describe your congregation's values and practices when it comes to conflict:

Many local churches love to tell the story of what they are doing in the community to transform lives. Some have identified certain aspects of their witness into the wider community using language shared with other UCC congregations. (Find more information as desired at ucc.org.) Check any statements below that apply to your UCC faith community.

Reflect on what the above statement(s) mean(s) to your community. Is your congregation interested in working toward any of the above statements of witness in the near future?

As we follow His example we would like to be identified with these aspects of Jesus' teachings. An ONA "team" met on May 14th, 2019. Steve Jones, a longtime member of the ONA committee for the Wisconsin Conference and of Union UCC in Green Bay, joined us. He shared what other churches have done to become ONA and what the process entails. The team's purpose is to listen to the congregation and provide some education in the next few months about what it means to be Open and Affirming to help decide whether Peace wants to have more of an outreach to the LGBT community.

Describe your congregation's participation in ecumenical and interfaith activities (with other denominations and religious groups, local and regional).

- Blue Christmas Service in early December with the Presbyterian Church
- Martin Luther King Community Worship with Presbyterian Church
- Soup and Substance during Lent with the Presbyterian Church (The Catholic, Methodist, and Episcopal Churches joined us in the past but dropped out due to new or no leadership)
- Maundy Thursday and Good Friday services with the Presbyterian Church

- Healing Service in the spring (not held this year)

- Yearly Ecumenical Worship Service with the Presbyterian Church (not held this year) the Methodist Church participated in the past but dropped out.
- Urban Immersion
- Peace Fellowship Club

If your congregation has a mission statement, how does that mission statement compare to the actual time spent engaging in different activities? Think of the range of activities from time spent gathering, to governance, to time spent going out.

Our purpose as a Congregation is to worship God, to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, to provide an education and support for each person's growth as a Christian, to celebrate the Sacraments of baptism and Holy Communion to serve humankind in loving response to God and to strive for the righteousness, justice and peace for all. Our mission statement compares well to our actual time spent fulfilling our mission, however we need to spend more time reaching out to other people in our community.

Reflect on the scope of work assigned to your pastor(s). How is their community ministry and their ministry in and on behalf of the wider church accounted for in the congregation's expectations on their time?

It is our expectation that our pastor would be involved in the community for example:

- Homebound member visits
- Nursing home/assisted living visits
- Participation in local events such as; Sam 25, SAFPARC, Safe Haven

The percentage of single never married is lower than the state average for those 15 years and older. Divorce is more prevalent than the state wide average.

Married Couples with children are 67% and Single parents 32% is roughly the same as state average. Also lining up with state averages single parent numbers are growing while married couples with children are shrinking.

Population is growing slightly faster than the state average, and growing via child birth. It is projected to grow 3.2% by 2028. It is an aging community, with the number of children declining as a percentage of the population. As this is not reflected in a lower birth rate, it seems to indicate that the children are raised in the area and then leaving with their parents remaining.

The overall educational attainment of adults in this area is lower than the state.

6a. CLOSING PRAYER

“When I say I am a Christian,” by Maya Angelou

When I say... “I am a Christian“
I’m not shouting “I’m clean livin’.”
I’m whispering “I was lost,
Now I’m found and forgiven.”
When I say... “I am a Christian“
I don’t speak of this with pride.
I’m confessing that I stumble
and need Christ to be my guide.
When I say... “I am a Christian“
I’m not trying to be strong.
I’m professing that I’m weak
And need His strength to carry on.
When I say... “I am a Christian“
I’m not bragging of success.
I’m admitting I have failed
And need God to clean my mess.
When I say... “I am a Christian“
I’m not claiming to be perfect,
My flaws are far too visible
But, God believes I am worth it.
When I say... “I am a Christian“
I still feel the sting of pain.
I have my share of heartaches
So I call upon His name.
When I say... “I am a Christian“
I’m not holier than thou,
I’m just a simple sinner
Who received God’s good grace, somehow!

"Dream God's Dream"

(Chorus)

Dream God's dream

Holy Spirit, help us dream...

Of a world where there is justice, and where everyone is free

To build and grow and love

And to simply have enough

The world will change when we dream God's dream

I'm dreaming of a world where the color of one's skin

Will mean less than what's within the person's heart

A world where water's clean, and where air is safe to breathe

And every child born has enough to eat.

(Chorus)

I'm dreaming of the call God is offering to me

How to use my energy and my best gifts

To do the work of Christ -- to say, God please use my life

To spread Your healing love -- and to live your Truth

(Chorus)

I'm dreaming of the way that I want my life to go

I've got hopes and I've got goals I'd like to meet

I'm reaching for the stars, but I won't forget the scars

Of Christ who died to show that the Dream's for all...

(Chorus)

To Whom it May Concern

Re: Peace United Church of Christ - Shawano

Dear Sir or Madam,

Shawano Area Matthew 25, inc. (SAM25) is a 501c3 Non-Profit, which operates an emergency homeless shelter, resource center, thrift store and (soon to open) free clinic in Shawano, Wisconsin. I am writing in regard to SAM25's relationship with Peace United Church of Christ in Shawano. SAM25 is grateful to Peace UCC for the wonderful support and partnership its congregation has provided throughout the years. Peace UCC has not only provided monetary support, but several members have helped volunteer on various SAM25 projects, have provided food for shelter meals and the church is a valued neighbor, allowing SAM25 to use its church parking lot for one of our recent fundraisers.

SAM25 was built by and relies upon the Shawano Community to carry out its mission. Peace United Church of Christ has certainly been involved in this community support and we are grateful for its congregation's continued kindness.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 715-851-7252. Thank you.

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern:

I was asked to write this letter regarding the relationship Safe Haven Domestic Abuse and Sexual Assault Support Center has with Peace United Church of Christ in Shawano and I am delighted to share our experiences. I have been with the agency for the last 20 years and have worked closely with previous pastors at the church.

Safe Haven provides emergency shelter and outreach programming to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault and their families. We rely very much on the support of our community partners and Peace Church has been a wonderful support system. Not only does the Church financially support our organization, but is also interested in hearing about our work and partnering on projects and events. Staff at Safe Haven have given presentations during services and provided the congregation with newsletters and brochures. Members of the congregation also volunteer at the agency.

Every time I have visited the Church, I have felt welcomed and appreciated. It is a great group of warm and engaging people that understand the needs of a community and enjoy giving back.

I would be happy to meet and discuss any questions and provide an overview of our program and services. I can be reached at 715-526-3421 or director@shawanoshelter.org.
