2. WHO IS GOD CALLING US TO BECOME?

FEDERATED CHURCH - UCC - CHAGRIN FALLS, OHIO - PROFILE – 2022

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind." (Matthew 22:37 NRSV)

Who is God calling you to become as a congregation?

- God is calling Federated Church to be a community that accepts and welcomes all people as they are and supports them in their spiritual journey. With Christ at our center, we offer hope and healing to change our world.

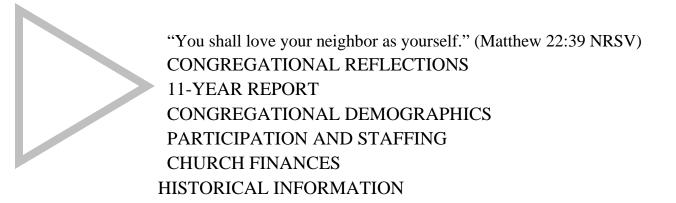

Describe how God is calling you to reach out to address the emerging challenges and opportunities of your community and congregation.

Our Visionary Action Plan for the future has developed goals and action steps around five Strategic Themes: Energize Participation, Community Engagement, Spiritual Deepening, Congregational Care and Financial Sustainability.

Our church has redirected its ministry to the larger community and surrounding area by transforming our Family Life Center into a partnership with a non-profit organization called the Community Life Collaborative whose mission is to advance compassionate and transformational stewardship for each other and the earth. Its focus is connecting our community and protecting our environment. The Community Life Collaborative has sponsored a number of educational forums and workshops on social and environmental justice and is currently coordinating efforts with Project Warm Kettle, a collaborative of agencies that are working together to help with the resettlement of refugees from Afghanistan.

Our church has also initiated a number of education, advocacy and action opportunities that enable our members to be involved in social and environmental justice issues through our Social Justice and Advocacy Ministry (SJAM). Through monthly movie nights and speakers, seminars and advocacy involvement, SJAM has developed a wide range of ministries that include racial allyship, immigration, diversity education in schools, homelessness, healthcare, voting rights, environmental and creation justice, LGBTQ advocacy, interfaith prayer vigils, criminal justice, and women's and children's issues.

3. WHO ARE WE NOW?

CONGREGATIONAL REFLECTIONS

Describe your congregation's life of faith.

Our Mission Statement is: We believe God accepts me as I am and loves me too much to leave me that way. Federated accepts all people as they are and supports them in the spiritual journey. With Christ we offer hope and healing to change our world.

Living in God's grace, we value:

- Extravagant Welcome: We warmly welcome and appreciate all people.
- Wondrous Worship: We praise and glorify God at the front and center of our lives. We open ourselves to God's call while seeking to create sacred space wherever we are.
- Faith Formation: We believe God is still speaking. We nurture and deepen our relationship with God, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit individually and in community.
- Purposeful Leadership: We lead, work and serve together as followers of Christ to discern, design, create and inspire opportunities to experience the Divine.
- Responsible Stewardship: We serve as faithful and generous stewards of God's gifts to us: time, money, talents, church resources and the earth to do God's work in the world.
- Boundless Beauty: We encourage and celebrate individual and communal expressions of beauty in our worship and surroundings as examples of the Holy elegance of God.
- Transformational Ministry: Following Jesus' example of love and justice, we seek to transform lives, including our own, through compassionate response, caring relationships, advocacy and active service

God is described by the use of many metaphors in our worship - Holy One, Creator, God, Father/Mother, Shepherd, Lord, Savior, Jesus as God's Child/Son, Sustainer, Comforter, Spirit, Source of grace, peace and love.

We believe God's spirit is present and alive in all the dimensions of life, including creation, beauty, art, music, work, service, worship, compassion, caring, friendships and strangers.

Describe several strengths or positive qualities of your congregation.

• We are an Open and Affirming congregation that accepts all people wherever they are on their life journey.

• We worship in a style that expresses the beauty and majesty of God's love and grace and which calls us as a gathered people to praise and serve God with all our hearts.

- We provide caring support to all members/friends of our congregation who are facing difficult times of loss, challenge or transition.
- We actively seek to serve God in ministries of justice and compassion.

Describe what worship is like when your congregation gathers.

Our weekly worship takes place in our recently-renovated sanctuary with a newly dedicated cross and baptismal font. Our worship service is based on the church year calendar and the lectionary readings. We have recently added a new organ and piano to enrich our fine music program which offers both traditional and contemporary music, choir, handbells, and a children's choir. Lay people share their faith witness as part of our worship experience. We also share a video generosity impact moment which highlights the ministries of the church. Our worship is both a celebration of God's grace and goodness and a call to follow in the way of Christ. Our preaching provides thoughtful and deep reflection on the meaning of the scriptures for our time and speaks to both head and heart.

Describe the educational program/faith formation vision of your church. For example, how are young people in leadership? How do people continue to form their faith over a lifetime? Name a topic studied or curriculum used recently; what was the impact of this study on those who attended?

For our littlest ones (Birth-Pre-K), Federated's goal is to give children positive experiences going to church and church school to encourage a lifelong interest in their faith. We try to stress that God loves them and Jesus is their friend. Federated also places a heavy emphasis teaching young children that they are loved by the church community and that church is a safe place to be who God created them to be.

For our elementary school children we offer a behavior-over-belief curriculum called "A Joyful Path" which is published by Progressive Christianity. This curriculum teaches the importance of relying on your own inner wisdom; that the Spirit of God dwells within each person and this is to be cherished and respected. We stress that there are three main parts to each person: mind, body and spirit and that it is important to "exercise" each part.

For our middle school through high school children at Federated our goal is to provide our youth with the tools needed to develop their own unique faith through thought, action and experience. "Thought" is brought about through discussion and worship. "Action" involves mission activities at least once a month. "Experience" comes through the Colorado Kids Trip, Overnight Mission Trips and the shared experience gleaned through growing together in our faith.

Beyond faith formation for our youth, Federated Adult Faith Formation includes book studies, "One Book, One Community," Bible studies, classes, and retreats.

The Social Justice Advocacy ministry team has developed and hosted several programs around white privilege and racial justice in the past 5 years. Over 70 Federated people have participated in the UCC White Privilege course facilitated by Federated church members. This has led to a partnership with Mt. Zion UCC where 24 participants, 12 from each congregation studied the UCC Sacred Conversations to End Racism curriculum together. Another outcome is the creation by Barry Stees of the Centering God, Decentering Whiteness program. It's now being used with UCC members in New Hampshire.

We believe that all participants at Federated are growing and evolving throughout their life and we try to offer programming and groups that meet people where they are in their faith formation.

Describe how your congregation is organized for ministry and mission. For example, how are decisions communicated in your church? How are teams or committees organized? Where does your church struggle for vision?

• When it comes to decision-making, how many hours are spent in meetings per month?

• The hours spent in meetings will vary according to the time of year, the programming that is happening, the needs of the church and church members.

• Think of a time when action had to be taken quickly, for example when a crisis or disaster occurred. How was that accomplished?

• When the covid crisis occurred, our leadership moved quickly to change from in-person worship and activities to a virtual style of worship and connection. They consulted with medical and video experts and church members who had experience in virtual communications to develop a vibrant on-line presence and avenue of communication for the congregation. The staff, church council and lay leaders worked jointly to develop and implement the changes needed to transition to virtual communications. • Can you provide the next minister with a copy of an organization structure, bylaws and/or annual report to further explain the patterns of the church's activity and governance? Yes - see applicant packet.

Our church went through a ministry structure reorganization in 2013 in which we organized our ministry into the work of five Commissions: Congregational Care; Mission & Service; Telling Our Story; Worship & Music; Spiritual Formation as well as three Administrative Committees: Finance, Properties and Human Resources. We recently added a Generosity Commission. These Commissions direct the work of the church under the guidance of the Church Council. A councilor on the Church Council is liaison as well as a staff liaison to each commission and committee. Commissions and committees typically meet once a month. The staff meets weekly to plan worship, review pastoral needs, and attend to the scheduled calendar of events. An important addition to our structure was the development of Ministry Teams in which individual members and groups are encouraged to develop new ministries that arise from the gifts and talents and their sense of call to serve God. Since 2013, we have developed over 60 ministry teams that perform a wide variety of study, fellowship, education, service and advocacy ministries.

Describe the range of occupations of working adults in the congregation:

- The majority of members are financially stable. Their occupations range from unemployed/retired to executive and everything in between.

Describe the mix of ethnic heritages in your congregation, and the overall racial make-up. Most UCC congregations tend to describe themselves as "diverse." Yet, the vast majority of UCC congregations are mono-cultural. What does diversity mean in your context?

- The ethnic makeup of Federated largely mirrors the communities in which the members live, which is largely white. Federated is a welcoming community which celebrates all peoples and is anti-racist.

- Diversity in the context of Federated Church: different backgrounds, different religious backgrounds, different educational levels, LGBTQ and straight members.

Has your congregation recently had a conversation about welcoming diversity, or do you plan to hold one in the near future (perhaps using, for example, the Welcoming Diversity Inventory)? Please note the date. Comment after the exercise:

• We have not had a recent conversation about diversity but it is embedded in our mission and vision for the church and it is something to which we are attending in an ongoing way throughout our programs, meetings, and relationships.

• Our church went through a two year process of education and discernment and affirmed our church's Open and Affirming Statement in 2009. We believe that being Open and Affirming is not just a one-time activity, but rather a process that we live each day through our programs, values and activities.

• Our church's Open and Affirming Statement is:

• We, the members of Federated Church of Chagrin Falls, Ohio believe that God is still speaking and we seek prayerfully to discern God's plan for us today. Acknowledging God's acceptance of us and Jesus' commandment to love our neighbors as ourselves, we affirm our belief that we are one body in Christ.

• We welcome people of all races and ages, mental and physical abilitities, marital status, gender or sexual orientation. We invite those from different backgrounds of economic class, ethnicity, and varieties of thought, expression and religious tradition to join us in our worship and to participate in the full life and ministry of our church.

• We celebrate the diversity of God's creation and believe that every person is uniquely made in God's image.

- We embrace the joy of being accepted and affirmed by God and by one another.
- We strive for justice and inclusiveness following Jesus' example of love.

REFLECTION

Reflection: After reviewing the congregational demographics and activities above, what does this information reflect about your congregation's overall ministry?

- Federated has an active membership that has built a family within the church. Most members view the church as a home and stay involved and invested in the mission of Federated for many years. In many ways the demographic makeup of Federated reflects the community which surrounds Federated. At the same time, Federated has strived to reach out to those beyond our community and share the bounty with which our members have been blessed.

Reflection: After reviewing the church's finances and assets described above, what does this information reflect about your congregation's mission and ministry?

- Federated has historically had generous giving that has allowed for an endowment to be created that provides funding for a portion of the annual operations. The endowment allows for greater giving to be provided to missions. Federated's annual budget is prepared once the majority of annual pledges are collected. Federated typically looks to operate with a balanced budget that maximizes the amount provided to our missions and programs.

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

Name one to three significant happenings in the history of your church that have shaped the identity of your congregation. Add the most important event in the life of your church in the past 10 years.

• The building and development of the Family Life Center in 1999 and its recent repurposing in 2021 for ministry to the wider community focusing on stewardship of the earth and advocacy for social justice through the incorporation of a non-profit organization called the Community Life Collaborative.

• Open and affirming process - Our church engaged in a two year study, discernment process and developed an Open & Affirming Statement that was approved by our congregation in 2009

• Our response to Covid, streaming services - In response to the Covid crisis in our community and nation, our church took great care in addressing the health safety of our members by initiating safety protocols and in developing alternative ways for them to participate in worship, study, fellowship and ministry through the use of ZOOM and on-line connections.

• We have an annual tradition that started 61 years ago to have our Christmas Eve offering given to a charity or organization. Over the years, $1.8 million has been collected and given to ministries and organizations both locally and around the world.

• A brief history of Federated Church that celebrated our 100th anniversary - see: https://fedchurch.org/history/

Describe a specific change your church has managed in the recent past.

A thorough two year long process was initiated in 2018 to address the financial burden created by maintaining the costs of operating the Family Life Center and maintaining the labyrinth and memorial gardens. There was a strong division about whether to try to maintain the FLC property or to sell it and use the financial resources for the church's ongoing ministry at our Bell Street location. Under Council's direction, numerous congregational listening sessions were organized and as a result of lengthy discussions and consideration of numerous alternatives, a decision was made to create a separate non-profit organization called the Community Life Collaborative to develop a ministry to the larger community and to maintain the the grounds, which include a Memorial Gardens and Labyrinth.

Every church has conflict, some minor, some larger. "Where two or three are gathered, there will be disagreement...." Describe your congregation's values and practices when it comes to conflict.

The church leadership managed the conflict that developed over whether to sell the Family Life Center or seek an alternative use of the property that would be financially feasible. We avoided a split in the congregation by hosting a series of "listening sessions" to seek potential solutions to the problem. We were able to arrive at a solution which was acceptable to both sides of the issue by arranging for the formation of a non-profit organization to operate the Family Life Center and reduce the financial burden it had created for the church.

We value open communication and encourage sharing and exploring opinions on all sides. We welcome differing opinions as conflict arises in our church life. We foster forthright conversations, offering intentional time and space to express differing thoughts and feelings and to work towards shared understanding and solutions.

4. WHO IS OUR NEIGHBOR?

"You shall love your neighbor as yourself." (Matthew 22:39 NRSV) COMMUNITY VISION MISSION InSite

COMMUNITY VISION

How do the relationships and activities of your congregation extend outward in service and advocacy?

Our church has a long history of service to the community and to the larger world. We have a 50-plus year history of supporting our sister inner-city church, St. Paul's Community Church on the Near West Side of Cleveland. We have a long history of supporting the Chagrin Falls Park Community Center, a minority serving community agency that borders our community. We have supported the Sparrow Village Ministry and programs in South Africa and programs for self-development in Nicaragua. We have supported a local Latinx Ministry called HOLA. We have a long history of doing summer youth work camps in various areas of the U.S. We have been a host church for families as part of the Interfaith Hospitality Network which has transformed into Family Promise and has a new permanent residency to provide support to local families in transition. We have a strong Social Justice Advocacy Ministry directed by our SJAM ministry team. We support the missions of our denomination through our Church's Wider Mission budget.

Describe your congregation's participation in meetings, relationships and activities connecting the wider United Church of Christ (association / conference / national setting).

We have an appointed delegate to both the Living Water Association and the Heartland Ohio Conference. The National UCC headquarters collaborations. We also have church members who work with the UCC in various capacities including being trained and running the UCC Sacred Conversations to End Racism.

Many local churches love to tell the story of what they are doing in the community to transform lives. Some have identified certain aspects of their witness into the wider community using language shared with other UCC congregations. (Find more information as desired at ucc.org.) Check any statements below that apply to your UCC faith community.

Reflect on what the above statement(s) mean(s) to your community. Is your congregation interested in working toward any of the above statements of witness in the near future?

- Our church continues to work on the above ministries and to tell our story to the larger community. We have just completed a new rebranding campaign that was unveiled in December 2020 with a new church logo with the tagline "Live Your Faith." The logo can be used by the different commissions with their unique focus under the categories of Support, Worship, Act or Grow. The goal is to display and communicate the wide variety of ministries using a common visual.

Describe your congregation's participation in ecumenical and interfaith activities (with other denominations and religious groups, local and regional).

- Our church is an active member of the Chagrin Valley Council of Churches and has been one of the leading churches in developing an interfaith public witness through hosting community prayer vigils involving participants from Christian, Jewish, Muslim and Baha'i faiths. We have also developed a strong relationship with Mt. Zion Church, a predominantly Black UCC church in Cleveland.

If your congregation has a mission statement, how does that mission statement compare to the actual time spent engaging in different activities? Think of the range of activities from time spent gathering, to governance, to time spent going out.

- Federated's vision is that with Christ at our center and surrounded by God's abundant love and grace, Federated Church thrives as a dynamic faith community for this generation and the next by:

- Engaging in extravagant invitation, welcome and inclusion,
- Fostering faith formation,
- Bringing forth transformational ministries, and
- Sharing our story

The members of Federated strive to be extraordinarily inviting to others and be actively inclusive. This is a challenge for many churches today because activities that are inviting to some may be off-putting to others, Federated utilizes many methods to broaden our message and our love. Federated looks to provide transformational ministries to those within and outside of our community while sharing our story.

Reflect on the scope of work assigned to your pastor(s). How is their community ministry and their ministry in and on behalf of the wider church accounted for in the congregation's expectations on their time?

Our pastors have been free to engage in community ministry as they feel led and as opportunity has presented. Our Senior Pastor has fostered a relationship with the Muslim Community in the area by participating in joint fellowship and public witness events. Our Senior Pastor has fostered relationships with sibling church Mt. Zion, a predominantly Black church in Cleveland. Our former Associate Pastor has participated in educational activities for parents and youth, work camps and schools. All the pastors have participated in, have been present and representative at community events.

MISSION InSite (Called the Executive InSite document - in the candidate G-drive folder)

Comment on your congregation's MissionInsite report with data for your neighborhood(s) or area. What trends and opportunities are shown?

Two trends indicated in the Mission InSite report are that singles and young families are projected to increase by 6% and retired persons by 7% by 2029. These would indicate developing programs that meet the needs of these two groups.

How do your congregation's internal demographics compare or contrast to a) the neighborhoods adjacent to your church, and b) other neighborhoods with which your church connects?

The internal demographics of our congregation correlates pretty well with those of the community in terms of racial homogeneity (87% white) and being highly educated and professional having twice the state average of college and graduate school residents.

How are the demographics of the community currently shaping ministry, or not?

The programs and worship style of our church largely appeal to an educated and professional class of people. They emphasize literary and scientific approaches to knowledge, including stages of human and spiritual development, high regard for the arts and classical, jazz and contemporary music, and relating our faith to contemporary life and current events. Our

FEDERATED CHURCH - UCC - CHAGRIN FALLS, OHIO - PROFILE – 2022

Visionary Action Plan indicated that our community is "attracted to warm and friendly encounters, quality sermons and opportunities to volunteer in the community". Our church seeks to provide these kinds of experiences for the people of our community.

What do you hear when you talk to community leaders and ask them what your church is known for?

Federated has been part of the fabric of this community for the last 150 years. It is a pillar in the lives of many of our residents who look forward to helping the Federated church welcome a new minister.

What do new people in the church say when asked what got them involved?

Recent members of our church have reported that they were attracted to be involved because of the inspiring worship and music, the opportunities to be involved in the various hands-on ministries of our church, the social justice focus of our ministry teams, the open and affirming focus, the welcoming atmosphere, the programs for youth and children, and the sense of family here at Federated.

But when you give a banquet, invite those who are poor and maimed and lame and blind, and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the just."
