INTRODUCING THE NEW LOCAL CHURCH PROFILE

Who are we Who is our neighbor Who is God calling us to become

The new Local Church Profile is not just for congregations in search of a pastor. All congregations are encouraged to engage in its process of discovery every 3-5 years. The UCC Local Church Profile reflects valuable data, assesses ministry, clarifies change, and helps advance the calling of the congregation. Not just to be completed by a search committee – the more participation, the better!

INSTRUCTIONS

The new Local Church Profile supports the calling and discernment of United Church of Christ congregations with their current or future pastoral leadership.

For many congregations, the interim time between ministers is an intentional season that is guided in part by the preparation of a Local Church Profile. Using the Profile, the church can discover its data and express its story for the reliable discernment of a search committee and the beginning of a new pastorate. Searching ministers will want to see this document in its entirety.

The interim season is not the only time in a church's life when it's valuable to give attention to explore a congregation's vocation. Three sections of the Local Church Profile – WHO ARE WE NOW, WHO IS OUR NEIGHBOR, and WHO IS GOD CALLING US TO BECOME – are meant to be updated every 3-5 years. Known together as the "Discovery Document," these three sections can be completed by a visioning group, a governing body, a transition team, or other group – not just the search committee – in order to draw forward the gifts and imaginative possibilities of a congregation. The church's engagement with the "Discovery Document" might not have the same sequence as the completed Local Church Profile that is read by candidates.

Some questions are easy to answer. Some are not so easy. Prompts are provided to stimulate narrative response if needed; these italicized prompts are merely examples from which to choose or to inspire your own. Efforts to answer the questions will prompt conversations and explorations and storytellings and many prayers, and as the Spirit moves throughout the process, congregations will shape a collective articulation of Christ's leading (WHO IS GOD CALLING US TO BECOME). This last question to be answered becomes the first section to be read by searching ministers in the Local Church Profile, and it is boldest and most actionable piece for faithful leadership into the future.

Your conference can provide materials referenced in the Local Church Profile, such as the 11-Year Report containing data as reported by your congregation annually to the UCC Data Hub and MissionInsite reports containing demographic information on your community. More information on types of pastorate in the United Church of Christ can be found in the Call Agreement Workbook. Be sure to use the Call Agreement Workbook's Scope of Work to describe in this Local Church Profile the position being sought.

When it is time for ministerial search, the conference can counsel you on posting the Local Church Profile together with your public listing at UCC Ministry Opportunities (http://oppsearch.ucc.org).

The last page of the Local Church Profile contains a statement that parallels the consent statement signed by ministers in the UCC Ministerial Profile. In keeping with the covenantal relationship between a church and those it seeks to call, this statement encourages an open, honest exchange of information. On behalf of the United Church of Christ, and on the basis of the best knowledge available to them, your conference staff will validate your completed Local Church Profile when it is ready to be shared in relationship with prospective new leaders.

Summary Ministry Description:

We are currently in a period of transition and re-evaluation. We strive to keep our congregation unified as we face less attendance at Sunday Worship. We continue to visit our members who cannot attend because of advanced age or illness. We continue to reach out to our community, feed the homeless, work with the Family Promise Project, and stay involved with local LGBTQ activities. We are a caring and inclusive congregation. We are financially secure, and we seek membership growth. Our long-term goal is to be a dynamic congregation with a strong youth program to attract young families. We need a solid and exciting music program. We live-stream our Sunday service to reach a more comprehensive number, but something needs to be added because Sunday live attendance is dropping. To get to where we want to be, we need new members with energy, new ideas, and the enthusiasm to make changes happen. We need to reflect on where we are, evaluate what we can do to make necessary changes, plan our next steps, and act with our future in mind. We want to involve the whole congregation on this faith journey, and we want young families to join us. We want to involve college students and the LGBTQ community as well.

CONGREGATIONAL REFLECTIONS

Describe your congregation's life of faith.

Our congregation's life of faith is centered around following the caring ways of Jesus. We accept all people as Jesus did, no matter their gender, race, sexual orientation or identity, or economic status. We are generous to those less fortunate in our community, especially the homeless. We are like a family and when one of our members is ill or in need of our help, we are there to do what we can. We work together to share the load of maintaining our church without thought of the time and effort it takes.

We are faithful and believe in the power of prayer. We come from mixed backgrounds in our foundations of faith, but we have come together as a caring family unit. We love each other and support each other through life's journey.

Describe several strengths or positive qualities of your congregation.

Positive strengths and qualities of our congregation are first the willingness of members to generously give of their time, completely without reimbursement. Many hours are spent in keeping the church running smoothly. Our members are asked to use their varied knowledge and experience to improve the life of our church by attending meetings, helping plan events in the life of the church, and taking part in the physical work to make things happen in the church. Our church members are generous not only with their time and talents, but with the funds to keep the church going. We value each other and the unique abilities and personalities of our members.

Describe what worship is like when your congregation gathers.

When our congregation gathers to worship, there is a good feeling in the room as members greet each other warmly. The big screens display items that are happening that week, to keep members informed. Music is softly offered by Josh at the piano. When the Pastor and Liturgist come up the aisle from the back, everything becomes quiet. At that time, current announcements are made. Josh plays an intro-piece and the service begins. Everything is displayed on the screens and members can choose to follow with the bulletins or with the screens. Participation in the singing is light and the choir is very small. The service is traditional in style. The members are focused and participate wherever required. The room feels warm and friendly, though many seats are empty. We use the Chalice Hymnal, the New Century Hymnal and the Spirit Anew Hymnal which provide variety in the music during our services. We strive to be welcoming and friendly to everyone.

Describe the educational program/faith formation vision of your church.

We currently have a Bridge Pastor, giving weekly Bible studies for adult attendance. Our young people participate at the tech desk running the service on the screens, help set up for communion, distribute handouts and hymnals when required, and help with the church decorations when needed.

Describe how your congregation is organized for ministry and mission.

For example, how are decisions communicated in your church? How are teams or committees organized? Where does your chur

- When it comes to decision-making, how many hours are spent in meetings per month? Generally, just one Cabinet meeting of under 2 hours.
- Think of a time when action had to be taken quickly, for example when a crisis or disaster occurred. How was that accomplished? When Covid shut down our church facility, we continued to contact members directly and moved services and studies to online and outdoor services.
- Can you provide the next minister with a copy of an organization structure, bylaws and/or annual report to further explain the patterns of the church's activity and governance? Yes.

Reflection: After reviewing the church's finances and assets described above, what does this information reflect about your congregation's mission and ministry?

Our congregation is made up of many retired people, who even though living on fixed incomes are very generous to the church with their money and time. This past year we sold our building and have invested over $2,500,000 securely with UC Fund. We also received large bequests from the estate of a deceased member.

Our plan is to hire a full-time pastor to guide us in making a new start as a congregation. We have been in Stockton for over 150 years and want to continue to be welcoming and caring force in this community. To this end, we are searching for a pastor who has the gifts for essentially a new church start, but with a strong base of current members.

Major Budget Change:

In June of 2018, our minister of ten years retired and after serious deliberation, we decided that we could only pay 50% of his salary. Even with this change, we needed to rent out space in our building for events, in order, to not be in deficit. This led to the recent decision to sell the building and use the funds to make a new start.

How is the budgeting process done?

Based on results from the prior year's operating needs, plus the current Stewardship Campaign, the treasurer generates a budget, which is first approved by the Cabinet and later by the membership at a Congregational Meeting.

New ministry initiative:

We are currently getting involved in Family Promise, an organization made up of several churches that house homeless families for a short period of time to help them be able to transition to their own housing. Our participation by preparing and serving meals at one of these churches.

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

Name one to three significant happenings in the history of your church that have shaped the identity of your congregation. Add the most important event in the life of your church in the past 10 years.

Perhaps the most memorable activities of the last 14 years, were the move to the Brookside location and staying there for 12 years, then selling that building, and moving to our current location on Deer Park, our becoming an ONA congregation and our celebration of 150 years as a church in Stockton.

Describe a specific change your church has managed in the recent past.

Voting to move to a new location. It took much hard work to come to this decision, and several members decided not to move with the congregation to its new location. While this created a smaller congregation, those who chose to move are united in their support for our new location and the opportunities it offers.

Every church has conflict, some minor, some larger. "Where two or three are gathered, there will be disagreement...." Describe your congregation's values and practices when it comes to conflict.

We give time to hear all sides of an issue, and then after trying to reach consensus, move on from there.

Ministerial History (include all previous ministerial staff for the past 30 years)

Staff member's name	Years of service	UCC Standing (Y/N)
Rev. William Allen Pifer-Foote	3	Y
Rev. Jeff Hopson	10	Y
Rev. Amy J. Johnson, Associate	6	Y
Rev. Dennis Johnson	8	Y
Rev. Sally Stevens Smith	5	Y

Comment on what your church has learned about itself and its relationship with persons who provided ministerial leadership:

Has any past leader left under pressure or by involuntary termination?

Yes-In the early 1990s one pastor was terminated by a near unanimous vote of the Congregation.

Has your church been involved in a Situational Support Consultation?

No

Has a past pastor been the subject of a Fitness Review while at your church?

No

COMMUNITY VISION
MISSION InSite

COMMUNITY VISION

How do the relationships and activities of your congregation extend outward in service and advocacy?

The relationships and activities of our congregation reach out to help the homeless with sandwiches made every two weeks. In the past events like the Crab Feed, Jazz and Coffee evenings, the Holiday Affaire and Spaghetti suppers were open to the community as well as members. We all work together to make these activities a success and plan to continue at our new location.

Funds raised from many of our events have been used for needs in our community. Our members keep informed about what we can do to help in our community and often spearhead our involvement in community activities. Currently some of our members are working with Family Promise, a church-run program to help homeless families save money by staying rent free in churches, until they can afford a home of their own. We have been providing meals for these families.

We have worked with a fraternity from the University of the Pacific for several years. They have helped with yard work, painting, cleaning, and recently they helped with our move. In turn, we provide them with a place to meet free of charge.

Describe your congregation's participation in meetings, relationships and activities connecting the wider United Church of Christ (association / conference / national setting).

We have sent delegates to Association and Conference meetings as well as to General Synod. We chose to join the Sacramento Valley Association, after the Association we are in geographically, chose to no longer function.

Many local churches love to tell the story of what they are doing in the community to transform lives. Some have identified certain aspects of their witness into the wider community using language shared with other UCC congregations. (Find more information as desired at ucc.org.) Check any statements below that apply to your UCC faith community.

Accessible to All (A2A)	Just Peace
Creation Justice	Global Mission Church
Economic Justice	_X_ Open and Affirming (ONA)
Faithful and Welcoming	WISE Congregation for Mental Health
God Is Still Speaking (GISS)	Other UCC designations:
Border and Immigrant Justice	Designations from other denominations
Inter-cultural/Multi-racial (I'M)	None

Reflect on what the above statement(s) mean(s) to your community. Is your congregation interested in working toward any of the above statements of witness in the near future?

We would be open to working on these as they were brought forward (for example, in the past we worked with the United Farm Workers).

Describe your congregation's participation in ecumenical and interfaith activities (with other denominations and religious groups, local and regional).

Family Promise and Peanut Butter & Jelly are the two we are currently participating in, but we are open to other interdenominational/interfaith ministries.

If your congregation has a mission statement, how does that mission statement compare to the actual time spent engaging in different activities? Think of the range of activities from time spent gathering, to governance, to time spent going out.

Our church covenant states that we "are committed to following the footsteps of Jesus: welcoming, accepting and loving others along the way." We proclaim that we "are an inclusive and diverse church; a place of unconditional love that inspires all individuals in our community, regardless of race, culture, age, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, abilities and socio-economic status." From worship to fellowship to meetings, we try to orient ourselves along these lines, knowing that we may fall short of our ideals. But we spend the bulk of our time trying to live up to them and not spend it on the minor details that often bog churches down. One benefit of moving into rental space is that the time we previously spent on building maintenance and supervising rentals is now able to be used for more productive ministry.

Reflect on the scope of work assigned to your pastor(s). How is their community ministry and their ministry in and on behalf of the wider church accounted for in the congregation's expectations on their time?

We expect that they will spend significant time on such activities.

MISSION InSite

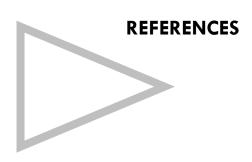

N/A No longer using.

What do you hear when you talk to community leaders and ask them what your church is known for?

We are known for our work with the homeless and that we are a "liberal" church.

What do new people in the church say when asked what got them involved?

They are glad that everyone is welcome and that the church is warm and welcoming. Being United Church of Christ was noted as a positive. They are happy that they are asked to use their skills.

Re: First Congregational Church

I am writing this letter to highly recommend First Congregational Church as a beautiful addition to our community in Brookside in Stockton, CA.

I have had the pleasure of working closely with E.J. Sugar and other members of the executive team and Board of Directors this last year when they recently sold their previous building/location. My family and I recently attended a service and felt a sense of belonging from the moment we arrived. We were deeply moved by the message and the music and impressed by the live-streaming technology they had set up to share the service on Facebook. The feeling of Spirit and community was palpable, and we are eager to attend service again very soon. The benefits of attending services at First Congregational Church include a welcoming community, inspiring messages, uplifting music, and the convenience of live streaming for those unable to attend in person. Feel free to call me, as I can't say enough great things about First Congregational Church. Best Regards,

Steve Werner

Name / Position / Setting: Rita Steele / Coordinator for Mercy Peddlers 858-414-3020 / kyrsteele@sbcglobal.net / A local ministry we work with

We are called on, not only to meet as a church family, but to share God's love. We are fortunate to have two excellent opportunities to share with others in our Stockton community. One is FAMILY PROMISE of San Juaquin. The other is MERCY PEDALERS. I have been involved with both for just over a year now and am the coordinator of both at Holy Cross United Methodist church. I urge you to join me in these meaningful endeavors. As part of Family Promise Holy Cross partners with First Congregational to house and feed up to four homeless families for a week at the Holy Cross facilities. First Congregational is our support congregation and provides 3 dinners and a sumptuous Saturday breakfast for the families in the program. That breakfast I would say is the highlight of their week with us. Holy Cross is a small congregation also. It would be very difficult to manage independently without the help of the caring volunteers from First Congregational: EJ Sugar, Susie Freas, Judy Masterson, Nina Freedom. After their week with us, the families move on to other churches and synagogues until they find jobs and housing.

Mercy Pedalers began in Sacramento, then came to downtown Stockton and now we have 3 North Stockton teams going out from Holy Cross UMC. In downtown we travel on 2 wheel bikes with a tall cabinet in the back basket. In North Stockton we go by car, and we cover 12+ miles to take coffee or hot cocoa, a fruit and a peanut butter sandwich and cookie or muffin to unhoused people that we see. We stop wherever we see someone in need. When we started February 2023, we were giving out ½ sandwiches. We now give 135 + bagged lunches every week with a whole sandwich! Some are donated bagels. First Congregational Church has been providing 100 peanut butter sandwiches every other week for us for the last 3 months. Also, Judy Masterson has signed on as one of our regular monthly bakers. This has been a real blessing. Instead of having to buy peanut butter, bread, and jelly, we have been able to buy gloves and hats and socks to give out. Partnering with the volunteers at First Congregational has been a tremendous help, and we are deeply grateful for their support. Rita Steele 858 414-3020

Covenant Presbyterian Church Celebrating 175 years of Gaithful presence in Scranton: 1848-2023

To any saint contemplating Stockton!

I loved my time at First Congregational Church, Stockton. It was, without doubt, the congregation that treated me best. (nine churches now over 37 years)

I know they are in a rebuilding season. My perspective on potential candidates for membership in Stockton was very high. I cannot think of another church in the area with more potential!

'Tis a time of challenge for Christian churches nationally. And worldwide. Still, these folks will love you. If you give them heart and soul, you will be rewarded. Stockton has some extraordinary saints; I believe the best may be yet to come.

I wish FCCS the best! May God guide them and you to New life!

In God's grip,

Rev. Jeff Hopson (Transitional Pastor, Covenant Presbyterian, Scranton, PA)

CLOSING PRAYER

Include here any prayer or dream for the minister you imagine journeying toward you... a poem, for example, or a Scripture passage or a piece of music that is meaningful to your Search Committee:

Most Sundays, we conclude the service with "Let There Be Peace on Earth." This song, introduced shortly after the Russian invasion of Ukraine, reminds us of our commitment to work for peace everywhere: internationally, locally, within our families, and within our congregation. We expect any pastor to keep this dream of peace alive. We can only do the work God calls us to do in unity and peace.
